COVID-19 UPDATE by Katie Scott

COVID-19 or Coronavirus has come to change our daily lives in everyway recently. We are here to help you as much as we can. As we continue with our current visitor restrictions, we want to outline the following for you: There are many ways you can communicate with your loved ones such as: Skype, FaceTime, phone calls, letters, window visits. For window visits, the window must remain closed. Please call and speak with one of our team members so we can help you set up a date/time that will work best for your family.

It might seem like an inconvenience now, but staying away will protect more than your loved one, it also protects other residents, staff, and YOU.

Thank You For Understanding

Clowning Around

Pastor Marian and Pastor Mario spent the afternoon cheering up both residents and staff going around to various windows. I know I was certainly glad they did not dress like Pennywise!
